

Pembury Children's Community

The Pembury Children's Community partnership is working to ensure that the 1,000 children and young people living on the Pembury estate get the best out of life. Two years into our 10-year programme, what have we achieved so far?

&

Getting things right early

Bringing early years services to Pembury

96 Pembury families with children aged under five have attended early years sessions run by the Children's Centre based on the estate

Childcare

Pembury pre-school increased their daytime places from

23 to 41

Their after school clubs were attended by 60 Pembury children from 2015 to 2017

Family learning

215 children aged under five received a free book every month

53 children have attended reading group sessions run on the estate

Support to young people in secondary school and beyond

Estate-based youth programmes

95% reported that coming along to these activities had made a positive difference to their lives

One-to-one support

64 of the most vulnerable 16-24 year olds on the estate have received intensive support from a caseworker

12 of these have been supported out of a severe crisis situation and 35 have moved into education, training or employment

Support for parents

Support to vulnerable families

Peabody has provided one-to-one support to 30 Pembury families in the highest level of rent arrears, significantly reducing their arrears, avoiding court orders and reducing family stress. There were no evictions.

Peer support networks

112 parents have regularly engaged in informal support networks including Dads Zone activities, parents coffee mornings and Reading from the Start family learning sessions

Supporting people into employment

169 adults were helped into jobs by Peabody's Hackney Employment and Training team. 14 of these were Pembury parents

Parenting

45% of the 24 parents that completed a Strengthening Families, Strengthening Communities course said that it had improved how they felt about their relationship with their child

69% thought it had a positive impact on their child's self-esteem

"I love the community centre, it's a vibrant place where you can feel free, and you can gain something rather than being stuck at home... You get all the resources, information, support, encouragement, it's all there, you just have to push yourself out of your shell to go and get it" – Local parent
